

REMOTE CAMPS

Parkhome Modular Units can assist in bringing the best out of your most important resource, your people.

Our design team is well versed in remote camp design and can design a camp that is both practical and modern. Our flexible solutions enable us to meet the tightest of budgets whilst maintaining a high-quality standard.

Cash flow a problem? We are constantly looking at new ways to assist our clients and can offer man day rate solutions through our various partners in the industry.

Let us design, build and rent you a fully functional camp today. Our strong Southey network in Africa enables us to tackle projects in the most trying conditions across all sectors including Oil and Gas, Mining, Construction and Civil Works. Our attention to detail and vision of excellence means we are constantly exceeding our client's expectations.
